The CMC is an invaluable resource, available to all users. The website contains a complete list of the contents of their library, with information about borrowing or buying scores. You can borrow directly off the site, and items will be sent to you through the mail. You are allowed to keep them for two months. If you order your own copy, they will make it up and send it to you. There is no charge for the library service, and very reasonable charges for buying music. For those without access to the internet, the best alternative is to visit a CMC office and browse the library. If you know what you want, you can order over the phone.
